Homeowners Association

Have you ever had a question or concern about the neighborhood that you wanted to address? Joining the HOA board is a great way to be part of the solution!

We're seeking homeowners who are:

- Passionate about our community: We need your unique perspective and ideas to tackle challenges and make our neighborhood even better. Act fairly and in good faith to promote the well-being of the entire community.
- Solution-oriented: Do you enjoy brainstorming and finding creative ways to address issues? make informed decisions and share your skills with the board!
- Team players: The board works collaboratively, and your willingness to work with others is key. Board members have a duty to act in the best interests of their HOA.

Time Commitment – From a 2-minute email to a 30 minute call Few meetings remaining!

Routine Tasks Needed – Pick up a curbside order or other small task such as send emails, making a call, or coordinating YoM winner/gift card.

Requirements – Your name must be on the property deed and your account must be current with no outstanding balance.
